

COVID-19 URGENT

OFFICE OF THE DISTRICT MAGISTRATE & COLLECTOR, JHARSUGUDA
OFFICE ORDER

No. 15654 /Emg.

Dated : 25th Sept 2020

Whereas the order No.5039/R&DM(DM) Dt.31.08.2020 of Govt. of Odisha in Para No.4(c) provides that the onus of compliance to the guidelines relating to physical distancing and use of face covers/masks by the employees and customers lies with the owners of shops / commercial establishments.

Whereas it is seen that people huddle around mobile road side fast-food and tea vendors and eateries in different parts of the district violating COVID regulations.

Whereas it is reported by the Sub-Divisional Magistrate, Jharsuguda, who is looking after enforcement of physical/social distancing and observance of COVID norms in the field that there are repeated instances of violation of COVID regulations by the aforesaid vending units and these are the places where people continue sitting/standing in group unmasked and gossiping with one another for hours together and no vendor is taking any step towards adherence of COVID norms.

Whereas there can be no effective sealing of these units.

Now therefore the undersigned in supersession of this office order No.15618/Emg. Dt.24.09.2020 declares cessation of the operation of these units for coming two weeks in the district of Jharsuguda. However as a measure of district specific support for the livelihood of these vendors, Rs.2500/- per capita will be given from CSR Pool. Payment of the sum is linked to compliance of this order. Deviation will also invite penal action.

The order will take immediate effect.
